President Tells Why He Favors Louis Brandeis

Characterizes Charges Against Bostonian as "Intrinsically Incredible to Anyone Who Knows" the Man.

By Evening Herald Leased Wire.

Washington, May 8.—President Wilson's letter giving his reasons for nominating Louis Brandeis for the supreme court and urging confirmation was read to the Senate judiciary committee today by Chairman Culver, but no vote was taken as had been expected and no time was fixed for one.

President Wilson characterized the charges against his nominee as intrinsically incredible to any one who really knows Mr. Brandeis, and declared they "proceeded for the most part from those who hated Mr. Brandeis, but because he had refused to be subservient to them in promotion of their own selfish interests and from whom they had prejudiced and biased." The president added that the propaganda in this matter has been very extraordinary and very distressing to those who love fairness and value the dignity of the great profession.

The president wrote that he believed the reports of the subcommittee which investigated the Brandeis nomination had already made it plain that the charges were unfounded. He said he had seriously considered appointing Mr. Brandeis to his cabinet three years ago and at that time examined his qualifications very thoroughly. He added that he had tested Mr. Brandeis by seeking his advice on perplexing public questions and had dealt with him in matters "where no questions of honor and fair play, as well as large questions of justice and the public welfare were involved." The president characterized Mr. Brandeis as a friend of all but men and a lover of the right.

The president closed by saying that he felt that your committee will accept this nomination as coming from me with a sense of public obligation and responsibility.

Steamer Cymric Sinking; No One But Crew Aboard

Vessel in Service of British Government Lost at Sea From Unknown Cause; Venezia Not Subject of Attack.

By Evening Herald Leased Wire.

London, May 8 (T. L. P. M.)—The report that the steamer Cymric is sinking.

The Cymric sailed on April 29 from New York for Liverpool. The vessel has been in the service of the British government for some time and has been on board no passengers on her last trip.

CAPTAIN DUNIES FAIRE LINER IS ATTACKED

New York, May 8.—The report that the liner steamer Venezia was attacked and chased by two German commerce raiders and submarines in mid-ocean May 1 was denied today by Captain Dunies, the ship's master, in making his report to the Admiralty and to Captain Mount, British naval attaché.

Captain Dunies said that two seaplanes were sighted in mid-sea and flashes of gun fire were seen, but the nearest the Venezia got to either of the ships was about four miles and the latter never paid any attention to him. Captain Dunies said he believed the two ships sighted were either British or French commerce raiders guarding the steamer and that they were evidently engaged in target practice.
